My Phone

My phone can keep me connected to the people I love...or my phone can become a wedge that divides us.

My phone can open a treasure trove of helpful, useful information...or my phone can deliver a tremendous amount of trivial information that will waste my precious time.

My phone can provide peace of mind when I or my loved ones travel, so help can be as close as a phone call... or my phone can be a constant source of distraction that may endanger me or someone else.

My phone can provide a platform for providing encouraging and uplifting messages to my loved ones, friends, or even new acquaintances... or my phone can give me the opportunity to harass and bully anyone I choose to hurt.

My phone can give me the chance to carry and share tasteful and legitimate photographs of people and events that are important to me... or my phone can be a depository of material that is in essence, pornography and cause me to be possibly embarrassed, legally liable, and lost eternally.

My phone can be an aid in my work... or my phone can be the cause of wasting time which belongs to my employer and ultimately, the cause for termination of my employment.

My phone can provide assurance when I am at worship or important meetings, so that I can be contacted concerning the welfare of a parent or child... or my phone can be so prominent by sight or sound that it interrupts the event without the occurrence of an emergency.

My phone can give me a handy copy of the scriptures, and even a place for notes and thoughts on Bible classes and sermons... or my phone can become a object of disrespect to the teacher, preacher, or anyone sitting nearby me, saying, "I don't care what is being said or done here, It is not as nearly as important as the news or messages I am receiving."

My phone can be a very valuable communication tool in my life... or my phone can become an obsession and damage or destroy my life.

But, my phone is an inanimate object and cannot really control me. It is controlled by me, though the choices of my heart. In using my phone, I need to heed the wisdom of Proverbs 4:23: "Keep your heart with all vigilance, for from it flow the springs of life.

—Lance Cordle

Westside Ladies Day

Becky Blackmon

I was born in Texas, but my family decided to move to New England to do mission work when I was 9 years old. I went, screaming and protesting but it turned out to be the adventure of a lifetime!

I was raised in Concord, New Hampshire and graduated from Abilene Christian University with a Bachelor's degree in education. I taught junior high school English and Latin and then met and married Jeff Blackmon from Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

Jeff and I have been married for 46 years and spent most of that time in the Atlanta, Georgia, area as Jeff worked for Delta Airlines. Jeff has since retired, and we now live in Hewitt, Texas. Jeff and I worship at the Lake Shore Drive Church of Christ where Jeff is an elder, and I help in teaching the Ladies Bible Class. We have 2 children, Jennifer and Jeffrey, who are the light of our lives. They have graduated from college, married and started their own families. We have been blessed with three grandsons, Will, Max, and Lex, and two granddaughters, Nora and Eva. Our son and family live in Texas' panhandle, and our daughter and family have recently moved to Florida.

I have been privileged to help my Mother, Lea Fowler, write 3 of her 5 books for Quality Publishing Company. She will always be my inspiration and role model. She always encouraged me to write a book of my own, and "The Begging Place" is now a reality. As of December 2015, my second book, "A Pearl Seeker" has been published, and my third book, "Seek The Precious Moments," has been released in February of 2019.

I have been so blessed to speak to my sisters in California, Texas, New England, Florida, New Mexico, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Idaho, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, Arkansas, South Carolina, and West Virginia. I also have spoken at the lectures at Polishing the Pulpit, Tahoe Family Encampment, Red River Encampment, Brown Trail School of Preaching, Freed Hardeman University, the WINGS conference at Harding University and at Ohio Valley University.

My greatest desire is to please God and to do His will. I love being able to do seminars and talks for the women of God. He has blessed me so richly, and if there is just one woman—one sister—who needs me in the audience today, then I have come for her. My prayer is that the Father will use me to help her.
